

Activities for The Human League

Don't you want me baby?

1. Listen to the song and decide who says the lines below:

The man or The woman

1. I was working as a waitress in a cocktail bar , that much is true.
2. You'd better change it back or we will both be sorry
3. You were working as a waitress in a cocktail bar when I met you
4. But now I think it's time I lived my life on my own, I guess it's just what I must do
5. But even then I knew I'd find a much better place either with or without you
6. But now I think it's time I lived my life on my own
7. I picked you out, I shook you up, and turned you around turned you into someone new
8. The five years we have had have been such good times, I still love you
9. Now five years later on you've got the world at your feet, success has been so easy for you
10. You think you've changed your mind you'd better change it back or we will both be sorry
11. But now I think it's time I lived my life on my own, I guess it's just what I must do

2. Now prepare a short play between the two people where they argue with each other using the lines from the song. They could, for instance be in a car or in a pub arguing.
