

SEPTEMBER

Car Free Day 22nd September

Car Free Day is a day on which some people decide not to use their car in order to help the environment. Instead, you can take public transport and that includes trains, buses and metro and of course you can walk or take the bike.

We have chosen the Car Free Day because the CO₂ emissions have to be reduced and with this day we hope that people will become aware of the consequences of it.

