U4 A1 A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A BABY MODEL (P24/1:58)

Q The meeting finishes at around 11:30. Then we take a bus to New Line Model Agents. We have lunch with Katie's agent at around 12:00 o'clock.
 A You never stop!
 Q That's right, and sometimes it's hard.
 A What do you do after lunch?
 Q Well, that's when Katie starts work. We arrive at the studio at about 1:30. A stylist dresses Katie in new clothes and puts some powder on her face. Before he begins, the photographer asks a baby wrangler for help.
 Q What's a baby wrangler?
 A It's a person who makes the baby look at the camera.
 Q How long is the photo session?
 A About 35 minutes. Then it's a wrap, which means it's finished. Babies can't work more than that because they get tired.
 Q So what time does Katie finish work?
 A At 3:30, the day's work is over.
 Q Then what do you do?
 A We take a bus home. We arrive home at around 4:00 o'clock.
 Q When does Katie have dinner?
 A I give Katie dinner at around 6:00.
 Q And when does Katie go to bed?
 A At about 8:00 o'clock. She needs her sleep!
 Q Can I ask you just two more questions, Cathi?
 A Sure.
 Q How much does Katie get for the job?
 A For two hours of modeling, Katie gets $150. The agency gets 20 percent.
 Q What about you? How much do you earn?
 A Not a cent, but I'm happy because Katie is earning money for her future. I would like her to study at university.
 Q Thank you very much Cathi for being with us today.
 A Thank you.

- S Excuse me. Can you help me, please?
 1 Yes, of course.
 S Am I near the New York Public Library?
 1 No.
 S Is it far away? Can I walk there?
 1 Impossible. You're on 14th Street and that's about 36 blocks away. You should take a bus or a taxi.
 S I prefer the bus. Do you know what number bus goes there?
 1 Yeah. There are several. You can get a number 2, 3 or 5 from that bus stop over there. Get off at 40th Street. It's about 8 stops.
 S Thank you very much.
 1 You're welcome.
 S Excuse me. Is this bus going to 40th Street?
 2 Oh no. Wrong direction. Get off at the next stop and change to the number 5 bus.
 S Thank you very much.
 S ...Excuse me. Is this the right stop for the New York Public Library?
 3 Yes it is.
 S ...Excuse me. Could you tell me the way to the New York Public Library?
 4 Sorry, I don't know. I'm not from here.
 S ...Excuse me. I'm lost. I'm looking for the New York Public Library?
 5 ...It's right over there, by the park.

U6: A2 THE STORY OF PIZZA

THE STORY OF PIZZA

There is (1) much to say about it:

Not (2) many people know that the Egyptians and Greeks already made something similar to a pizza.

In 1554 the Spanish introduced the tomato in Europe from Mexico. Naples, in Italy, is considered the modern birthplace of pizza.

Pizzas did not use (3) any cheese because it was very expensive years ago.

For many years there weren't (4) any pizzerias outside Italy. The first pizzeria in the USA opened in 1905.

Pizzas became famous all around the world during World War II, when the American soldiers were in Italy.

What makes a good pizza? (5) a lot of good ingredients and (6) some good oil.

U13: A7 IS IMAGE IMPORTANT?

1. Helen: Image is certainly very important for me. Clothes say who I am. I like to look good and I always wear colourful clothes. I feel confident if I am wearing new clothes, because they tell people who you are. People say I am a bohemian hippie.

2. Gretel: I don't think image is so important. Personality is more important than appearance. I never worry about the clothes I wear. I always wear casual clothes. You only have to be practical and clean.

3. Alison: Appearance is the most important thing for me. I buy expensive glamorous designer clothes and go to the hairdresser every week. I hate to see people wearing cheap clothes.

U14: A1 WHAT WAS YOUR JOB?

D: Mum, have you always been a housewife?

M: No, I was a bus driver once.

D: Really? I didn't know!

M: I know you are surprised.

D: When was that mum?

M: It was before I went to university many years ago.

D: Did you like it?

M: Yes, I did really. I met many, many people and it was great.

D: How many hours did you work?

M: First I was part-time then I worked during the week from Monday to Friday.

D: Did you have a good salary?

M: Well, not really but I saved enough money to go to university!

D: Wow, mum! Have you ever thought of going back to work?

M: I think I will. I'll look on the Internet.

D: Do you want to be a bus driver again?

M: No, this time I think that I will look for a job in finance. Come on let's have some tea.

D: O.K. Let's!

U14: A11 THE INTERVIEW

A: Good morning, please sit down.

B: Thank you.

A: Mrs. Thornton, you have applied for the office job we are offering in this international department and I would like to ask you some questions.

B: Yes, of course.

A: Do you mind working part-time?

B: No, not at all.

A: Do you prefer mornings or afternoons?

B: I don't mind at all.

A: About your professional skills, can you use a word processor and take shorthand?

B: Yes, I can. I am qualified and have previous experience.

A: Why did you leave your last job?

B: Well, My husband travelled long hours to work in another town so finally, all the family moved.

A: For this job we need somebody with language skills. Can you speak any foreign languages?

B: I can speak four foreign languages: French, Spanish, German and Portuguese.

A: How did you learn four foreign languages?

B: My father was a diplomat and we lived in different countries.

A: Do you have other skills that you consider important for this job?

Me Yes, of course. Please sit down

Stranger My name is Philip Neuhaus and I come from Vienna.

Me Oh nice to meet you. My name is Patricia Holt and I come from Surrey, England

Stranger Are you enjoying this trip?

Me Very much, I think I would like to come back next year.

Stranger Well I like it too. This is my third time. It's a therapy for me. It's a time when I relax and think about my life. I usually have a very busy life.

Me Really?

Stranger I work in a big company and I work long hours. I don't usually have free time at all. What about you?

Me I'm a primary school teacher.

Stranger Do you like your job?

Me Yes I enjoy teaching very much.

We spoke about our families, hobbies and education.

Stranger Well it's very nice to talk to you, Patricia.

Me And with you.

Stranger Would you like to have lunch with me?

Me Well, sure. Why not?

Stranger See you then!

For your information that was the beginning of a friendship. We still send e-mails, phone and chat with each other. I don't think he's a sad man anymore. We are making plans to meet on the same train again.

U16: A1 NEW YEAR'S EVE

Mark and Jennifer from New York.

- M Hi, Jennifer. Happy New Year!
- J Thanks, Mark. Same to you.
- M How was New Year's Eve? What did you do?
- J Well, actually, I went to Times Square with some friends. We were there until just after 12 o'clock and then we went to a party.
- M That sounds great! Where was the party?
- J It was at my cousin's house. We had a great time! What about you? Where did you spend New Year's Eve?
- M Well, my wife and I had dinner at my parents' house. It was a bit boring, really. I had too much champagne and had to take a taxi home. Next year we'd like to go out with our friends. Maybe we could go clubbing in Manhattan. We'll see.

J Is that a New Year's resolution?

M (laughs). Yeah, I guess it is.

U16: A8 CULTURAL DIFFERENCES. TWO INTERVIEWS

1. Hello, my name is Alexander. I'm from Russia and I came to England to play in a music group. I arrived here a year ago and I'm happy, but sometimes things are different from my country. I earn money playing in concerts but I can't afford to live on my own. Actually, I live with three other friends in the South London area. I don't think I will go back to my country except for holidays and family visits.
2. Hello, my name is Dario Fango and I come from Portugal. I work in films. I make short documentaries for local TVs. I came to England five years ago and I live in a small apartment in the Soho London area. I want to become a film director but I need extra money. At the moment I'm working with a group of people from Japan and Canada. I'd like to go back to Portugal some day, but there are more job opportunities here at the moment.

I: What part of India are you from?

T: Ah, the northern part of India, from the Jammu & Kashmir state.

T: Ah, you mean when did I start working in the tourism department... well in this field?

T: Well, I started... In the beginning I was... I was around 16. And... Well, that was... At that time I was not working permanently in this field. That was just part time. That time I was studying as well and then working as a... in the tourist...ah... in this line. And... It is now. I work in this line from 1995 till now.

Part II

I: What do you enjoy most, the treks? Do you prefer working in the mountains or in other areas of India, like the Rajasthan?

T: Yeah, I do enjoy both. Well it's my job, yeah. I enjoy... Mostly I enjoy the trekking and expeditions. And also I enjoy working in the Rajasthan as well—some nice and relaxed tours.

I: And do you like mountain climbing?

T: Well I'm a professionally mountain climber and... I do like the climbing very much and I've been on Nun, which is 7100 metre high.

I: What about Everest?

T: Well I'm looking forward to climb the Everest if I get a chance. I cannot organize my own because it's very expensive going to Everest.

I: What season do you work most in?

T: Well in the beginning I worked most in summer season in the Himalayas. Now I work....

U16: R16 HELP CATCH THE CROOK

P Have you seen anything strange this evening?

Me Well, yes. I saw somebody running with a gun.

P Did you see them well?

Me Yes, I did. I saw the person very well.

P Would you please come with us to the Police Station?

Me Yes, of course.

At the Police Station the Policeman wrote my answers on a computer. He said:

P We want to ask you some questions. Name please.

Me I'm Stuart Williams.

P Nationality.

Me I'm British, but I live in the U.S.

P Address.

Me I'm on holiday in Philadelphia. I'm staying at the Strand Hotel.

P Job.

Me I work in a shop in New York.

P Can you give a description of the person you saw running, please?

Me He was a white thin man in his thirties, I think. He was tall and dark.

P Did you see his face?

Me Yes, I did. He had short black hair, green eyes and a long nose.

P What was he wearing?

Me He was wearing jeans, an orange t-shirt and... Oh yes, black trainers... I mean tennis shoes.

P Was he carrying anything?

Me Yes, he was. He was carrying a bag and a gun.

P Well did you see anything else?

Me No, but what did this man do?

P Sorry, there was an important robbery in one of the hotel rooms.

I suddenly remembered, the bag.

Me I think I know where the man left the bag and it might still be there!

The Police found the money and the crook too. He was a part-time plumber working in the Hotel, but a thief too!
